

A PENOBSCOT BRAVE.

Find the Enemy He is Looking For.

The chief characteristic of the Penobscot tribe of Indians may be said to be their love for the water, and their ability as canoeists. They are great travelers, but their traveling is done almost entirely upon the lakes and rivers in bark canoes. They are also noted for their ability as canoe builders. The squaws of the Penobscots devote a great part of their time to basket making, at which they are adepts. Penobscot baskets adorn many hundreds of homes throughout the country, and as a rule are highly valued for their artistic qualities.

Foley's Kidney Cure purifies the blood by straining out impurities and tones up the whole system. Cures kidney and bladder troubles. E. B. Longwell.

Thirty Years Ago.

From The True Northerner of July 18, 1873.

The South Haven Sentinel says: "In this portion of Van Buren county we have learned to respect and honor the people of Allegan just the same as if that imaginary line was wiped from existence. The interests of the people of the western portion of the two counties are identical and they will some day be cemented together by a circle forming the boundaries of a new county."

Capt. Smith of the Long Brick will be home in a day or two.

A MODEL HARNESS STORE.

E. Neff Nicely Settled in His New Building.

A visit to E. Neff's new harness store on north Kalamazoo street will bring you to what traveling men say is one of the best appointed establishments of its kind in the state. The building of white brick veneer, 50 feet deep, is neat in appearance from the outside, but doubly so from within. The walls and ceiling are of Georgia pine, the floor of hard maple, and the front is a beauty, with a nice entrance and large plate glass window. There is also plenty of light from the rear. The stock is complete and conveniently arranged, the finer harnesses being in handy cupboards, as are also many of the smaller horse furnishings, while blankets, etc., are nicely displayed, and show cases well filled.

F. V. Hodges has his shoe repair bench at the rear of the store.

Altogether, it is a pleasant business place, of which Mr. Neff may feel justly proud. He has shown commendable enterprise in erecting the building, and is bound to reap his just reward in an increased business—especially as he enjoys an enviable reputation for square dealing.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach.

For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rheo, Coppell, Tex. Sold by E. B. Longwell.

Messrs. Ely Bros.:—I have been a great sufferer from catarrh and hay fever and tried many things, but found no permanent relief until I found it in Ely's Cream Balm about eight years ago, and we have been fast friends ever since. (Rev.) R. M. Bentley.

Messrs. Ely Bros.:—Find enclosed 50 cents, for which please send me your Cream Balm. I find your remedy the quickest and most permanent cure for cold in the head, catarrh, etc. Yours truly, Dell M. Potter, Gen. Mgr. Arizona Gold Mining Co.

"Laugh and Grow Fat."

Life is such a serious business to the average mortal that an opportunity for a hearty laugh is more than welcome to most people. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," and so do the humorous features of that great metropolitan daily, The Chicago Record-Herald. The first thing that greets you on the first page of every issue is the humorous cartoon by John T. McCutcheon, the well-known artist, that frequently tells more at a glance than could be conveyed in a column of reading matter. Every issue contains also a humorous short story on the editorial page, and the "Alternating Currents" column, written by S. E. Kiser, one of the most popular humorists in the country. In addition to all these, the Sunday issue always includes a comic section, guaranteed to produce laughter,

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it rains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
